

I want to register my concern about the push to make it illegal for individuals to tape record programs from their televisions (or other media) for personal use in their own homes...once again some wrongheaded individuals are trying to solve one problem by creating another one and reducing individual freedoms. More government involvement in our personal lives, which amounts to censorship, will not be tolerated by the American people.